Wohlfahrt, Franz - 28 Little Duets, Op. 191. For Violin And Viola. Edited By Vieland. International

Synopsis

Franz Wohlfahrt is best known for his books of etudes for developing violin technique, but his 28 Little Duets, Op. 191 for violin and viola is a charming collection of short duos. The pieces remain in first position, giving beginners a chance to enjoy some easy chamber music. This edition for violin and viola is edited by Joseph Vieland, and contains separate parts for violin and viola. Published by the International Music Company. Customer Reviews

A great book for intermediate students. My son is in his 3rd year and these short pieces are challenging enough to keep him on his toes but not so hard as to discourage. I'm also a violin student and I have to work a bit also. This is a great way to keep learning interesting.

Great little book, easy to read and in first position. I like the fact that it has a separate book for the viola too. Written in big clear notes.
