Customer Reviews

I've done all 5 levels of Pimsleur Mandarin...in retrospect, I would say levels 4 & 5 are actually a waste of time because the core foundation for the structures are in levels 1 through 3...after that it's just a matter of expanding vocabulary and Pimsleur is a very slow & inefficient way to expand vocabulary, there are much more faster ways of expanding vocabulary...AGAIN, Pimsleur Mandarin 1 through 3 are GREAT because they establish a core foundation for the structures, but levels 4 & 5 are a waste of time

I love the Pimsleur Method. The pacing of the lessons is good, like having a patient teacher. You develop listening acuity and work on your pronunciation. The whole course consists of listening and responding to voices on CD's. It is pretty much all oral, without books. Chinese is not easy, and I consider this an important supplement to my textbook work.
