Powder River: Season 10, Vol. 2

Synopsis

Celebrating its 10th anniversary, Powder River continues the adventures of the citizens of Clearmont, Wyoming, in the year 1884. In "Henry M. Teller Comes to Town", the people of Clearmont all pitch in to help Millie, who has fallen ill on the day a member of the administration arrives from Washington, DC, plan a dinner for his entire entourage. Passing through the town of Iron Meadow, Britt encounters the surprise of his life in the episode "The Reflection in the Mirror Is Not Mine". Levi and Roy get more than they bargained for when they discover "Second Hand Gold", and the town could change forever when the palatial private rail car belonging to "The Oil Baron" arrives at the Clearmont depot. Unconquerable courage, action, and adventure; heartwarming moments; and beloved characters that many fans have said "are like family" is the magic of Powder River. Episodes include: "When Henry M. Teller Came to Town", "The Reflection in the Mirror Is Not Mine", "Second Hand Gold", "The Oil Baron", "Boom Town", "Bill of Sale". Executive producer: Mark Vander Berg. Produced by MJ Cogburn. POWDER RIVER IS AN EXCELLENT RADIO SERIES. IT IS WELL WRITTEN AND HAS GREAT DEPTH OF ITS CHARACTERS. NOW THAT THE SERIES IS AVAILABLE ON CD, CASSETTE AND MP3 IT WILL OBVIOUSLY GAIN MORE FAN DUE TO GREATER ACCESS. IF YOU LIKE WESTERNS YOU WILL ENJOY POWDER RIVER. I CAN'T GET ENOUGH!

For those of us who grew up with Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, The Lone Ranger, and enjoy all those Clint Eastwood spaghetti westerns, we can get our fix of the ole wild west in the audio drama format now, too. POWDER RIVER is written in the style of the 1940s and '50s radio drama, where a central ensemble of characters carry on surviving what life in a frontier town throws at them. The series is set in Clearmont, Wyoming near Fort Sheridan, at a time when American Indians were being "resettled" from one reservation to another and the railroad was being built, and law and order were yet fully established so there is plenty of action to be had here. One of the things that I like about Powder River, is that it is "family friendly," with language and situations appropriate for children to listen to with parents. For a good old shoot 'em up western, I highly recommend the POWDER RIVER series of audio dramas... especially great in the car!
