Customer Reviews

The author addresses appraisal subjects in the terms and in a context that an appraiser normally communicates. He provides adequate legal explanations and court case reference, so, the appraiser can communicate with their legal counsel & clients. It is extremely insightful for all who are doing any type of court or property tax appraisals. It is slanted to condemnation assignments, however, the appraisal & legal principals are enunciated clearly enough that, they are easily extended to property tax and estate appraisal assignments. It has been helpful to my work my Ad Valorem assignments.
