Customer Reviews

The organization is awful, yes they give you all of the hints and tips you'll need that will hopefully score you a scholarship and they even have a bunch of them listed too! But they did the worst possible way, they organized it alphabetically. What could possibly be the problem with that? You ask. Let me explain. This book is split into sections for the scholarships by State Specific/Major Specific/etc. and that's great and all unless you don't actually want to spend hours leafing page by page just to find a something you're actually looking for. They're all over the place! State specific section is probably the worst, there are fifty states in the US of A and that's not a number you'd appreciate in size unless you're trying to find a New York buried under Californias and Oklahomas, swimming through a sea of Floridas and Texases, and once you actually do find New York it's the only one for another twenty pages that you'll spend squinting through the neat font only to find out it's only for graduates and you need to do it AGAIN. So instead of finding scholarships offered from ARKANSAS to what ever the last A state is you're finding the AA STUDENT scholarship from Washington and the AB STUDENT one that's from the other side of the country. The book itself is informative, it's very much so; but the absolutely awful organization made me want to rip my hair out. It's like shifting through a bunch of test papers for a third grade class who never correctly learned how to write and trying to organize them by last name and at least a quarter of them didn't even put their names on the paper, so you have to put them all in a separate pile and....it's strenuous.
